Summary of reasons for decision:

The video file is deemed to be objectionable under s3(2)(a) of the of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993 (FVPC Act) because it promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes. It is a clip of a nude young girl posing in sexualised way. The video is intended for the sexual arousal and titillation of adults with an interest in children. The availability of such material encourages the creation or reinforcement of this sexual interest by presenting children as appropriate subjects for adult sexual fantasy and desire. This classification interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications falling under s3(2) of the FVPC Act be banned. It also reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from exploitation.
